Owner Management Agreement Addendum

PROPOSED TERMS | Attached agreement: Owner Management Agreement_5.0(2).pdf, 12 pages

Owner: Ben Thomas Wieduwilt Agent representative: Miguel Jimenez, Precise RV Rentals

Agent legal entity: Precise Enterprise Rentals LLC
Trailer year / make / model: 2019 Forest River Wildwood
VIN: 4X4TWDC24KC045762 Effective date: November 6, 2026

1. Priority and acceptance. This addendum forms part of the attached RV / Motorhome Rental Vehicle Management Agreement (the Agreement) when both parties sign it. It controls over conflicting text, form entries, annotations and attachments in that Agreement. Except as changed here, the other terms remain unchanged. These are proposed terms for mutual review, not a representation that every term has already been accepted.

2. Rental revenue and payment (Agreement pages 2 and 4). Owner and Agent each receive 50% of gross nightly rental revenue actually collected, before platform, processing, referral or finder fees. Those fees are paid from Agent's share unless Owner separately approves a specific charge in writing. Approved Owner repair or maintenance charges may be deducted after calculating Owner's share and must be itemized. The standard nightly rate is $175 with a two-night minimum; the Agreement's existing seasonal and promotional pricing discretion remains. At the standard rate, two nights produce $350 rental revenue and $175 for Owner before approved Owner expenses. Under the selected Basic Plan, Agent retains 100% of delivery, setup, prep, cleaning, bedding, kitchen-kit and other add-on fees; extra-mileage, towing and generator fees remain allocated to Agent under the Basic Plan. Agent will provide an itemized monthly statement and pay amounts due by the 5th of the following month. The existing renter nonpayment / charge-dispute provision remains unchanged.

3. Storage and commercial insurance (Agreement pages 3, 4 and 6). Agent pays all management-related storage costs and commercial insurance premiums for this trailer throughout Agent's custody and management, including months without rentals. These costs will not be charged to Owner, accrued as Owner debt, or deducted from Owner's earnings. This replaces all contrary storage and commercial-premium billing language. Owner remains responsible for registration and any separate personal-use insurance the Owner maintains. This provision does not authorize cancellation of personal coverage.

4. Repairs (Agreement pages 2, 3, 5 and 6). The Basic Plan remains selected. Owner's prior written approval is required for any Owner-paid repair or related repair incident exceeding $250 in total, including parts and labor. The exception is an immediate safety emergency requiring action to prevent injury or further damage; Agent will promptly notify Owner and supply receipts. This approval limit controls over broader repair-authority provisions. Covered Basic Plan work remains Agent's expense; other authorized Owner-paid work is billed under the existing schedule, including the stated $100 hourly labor rate.

Use, return and insurance confirmation

5. Personal use and location (Agreement pages 3, 6 and 8). Owner may reserve available dates with at least five calendar days' written notice. Agent will provide access to the availability calendar. Existing cleaning, replenishment and preparation obligations after personal use remain. The trailer's storage / management base stays in California. Before taking custody, Agent will provide the actual storage site name and full street address below, including any space or unit number. Agent will give Owner written notice of any change of storage location before moving the trailer. This notice requirement applies to storage changes, not routine rental deliveries.

Storage: 43227 50th Street West, Lancaster, CA 93536

The winter relocation provision is deleted. This does not restrict ordinary customer deliveries permitted under the Agreement.

6. Term and return (Agreement pages 1, 3 and 9). The arrangement begins on the effective date and continues month to month. Either party may terminate at any time on 30 calendar days' written notice. This replaces the one-year term, inconsistent month entries and fixed-term automatic-renewal provisions. Agent will make the trailer, keys and documented Owner equipment available for pickup in California no later than the end of that notice period. Agent is responsible for transferring or otherwise resolving bookings extending beyond that date; those bookings will not extend Owner's obligation to supply the trailer. No $300 termination or nonrenewal fee applies. Other valid, itemized Owner charges remain payable under the Agreement; there are no storage or commercial-premium charges to settle under section 3. Amounts genuinely disputed will be addressed separately and will not delay return of the trailer.

7. Insurance confirmation before rental operations. Before the first rental or Agent transport, Agent will provide Owner the applicable policy / coverage documents and written confirmation identifying this trailer, Owner's insured status, coverage during storage, transport, setup and customer use, liability and physical-damage limits, and exclusions. The following must be completed and accepted by both parties before signing this addendum; no deductible or uncovered-loss allocation is supplied or assumed by this draft.

Carrier / policy number: _____
Liability limit: _____
Physical-damage limit / valuation basis: _____
Deductible(s): _____
Who pays each deductible, and in which circumstances: _____
Responsibility for denied / uninsured renter damage or uncollected renter damage:

8. Identification and signatures. References to Hightened Path RV in the maintenance addendum mean the Agent identified above. Complete the Owner / trailer identification and condition report in the attached Agreement before execution. California governing law remains selected. Both parties must sign this addendum and the attached Agreement; no signature has been applied by the preparer.

Rental Rates
Agent shall collect rental payments from customers as per Agent's current published website rental rates on their official website, WWW.PRECISERVRENTALS.CO, or give a discount to renters depending on the year and mileage of the RV or as competition advertises.

Owner agrees to allow agent to vary the published rate during the year to accommodate special weekend packages, coupon specials various other promotional offerings, or renter discounts.

Owner further agrees that in the event that any commissions or discounts is paid to other agents, including but not limited to travel agents, airlines, or credit card companies the amount paid will be shared per compensation section of this agreement.

Agent's Responsibility
To qualify rental customer using MBA, Outdoorsy, RVShare, and American Modern Insurance Company's format and guidelines. Collecting credit card and employment information from renters. Verifying possession of a valid driver's license with the DMV. Providing instructions of RV operation and safety prior to departure. Prior to departure, collecting damage and security deposits including all costs of the rental in advance. Prior to rental, receive a waiver/endorsement from the renter's insurance company. (If the renter's insurance company programs allows for such waiver/endorsement). If not, the renter will buy the proper insurance from the Agent's Insurance Company, which at this time is MBA insurance, RVShare or Outdoorsy. Agent does not sell insurance. The insurance needed must be full commercial rental insurance. To inspect RV for damage at each check out and check in and charge accordingly for any damage of interior or exterior not covered by insurance.
During Agent's custody of the rented RV, Owner authorizes agent to constantly maintain the RV in good repair, attractive, serviceable and safe condition; including but not limited to tires, windshield, and upholstery. The cost of maintenance and repairs will be charged to the Owner's account unless otherwise stated and amended in this agreement. Agent will not allow smoking at any time inside the RV.

Invoice for repair and maintenance will be provided with Owner's account. Owner also authorizes Agent to authorize emergency road repairs for renter, and Agent agrees to use reasonable discretion in authorizing such repairs. Ordinary wear is expected on any rental unit and normal interior and exterior wear is the sole responsibility of the Owner. Renters are not charged for minor wear and tear. This includes but is not limited to, upholstery, wood, linoleum, and exterior scratches. In the event of tears or burns in the upholstery Agent will only be responsible for the repair to the damaged area only. In the event of a tear in the linoleum or carpet, Agent will only be responsible to repair the torn area. In the event of a crack in the windshield, Agent will only be responsible to repair and fill the cracked area. If the cracked windshield is not repairable, then windshield will be replaced at Renter's expense. Agent will collect funds from renter on any damage to the interior or exterior of the RV, caused by the renter. Agent will withhold any and all funds held by the Agent if the renter does any damage to the RV. These funds will be used to repair the RV.
In the event of any breakdown Agent has the right to settle all claims in reference to the rental charges by giving renter free days, free miles, or free generator time if necessary. In such a case, the money due to the owner will be deducted unless there was fault of the Agent not having the RV prepared and inspected properly. Agent agrees to have RV ready and available for Owner's use, without payment of rental fee, upon Owner's advance written request, 2 days prior excluding Sunday, provided such request does not conflict with previous customer reservations.

If the RV is not stores with the Agent, Owner agrees not to charge Agent any fees for storage as long as the RV is stored at secure storage facility agreed on by both parties. Agent must have keys and access to the RV 24 hours a day. If the Owner elects to use his RV during the term of this agreement, the Owner is responsible for replacing fuel, propane, dumping tanks water fill, and cleaning the interior and exterior upon return of use.

If in the event that the owner desires not to renew this agreement, Owner agrees to send the Agent notification 30 days prior to the expiration off this agreement. If Agent receives no notice from Owner to not renew this agreement, this agreement will renew automatically for another 6____ months.

Owner's Responsibility

The Owner knows and accepts that the income for this RV is based on a 0_____ month rental program. There will be times the RV will not be rented for a period of time and there will be times the RV will be rented continuously. Most rentals will be summertime, holidays, NASCAR events, football games, and other events throughout the year.
Owner authorizes Agent to add the above described RV to Agent's master insurance policy for commercial rental coverage. This policy names the Agent as insured party and the Owner as additional insured. You will receive proof of insurance from our insurance company.

Owner accepts insurance subject to the terms, conditions, limitations and restrictions contained in the actual policy of insurance even though all of them are not set forth in this agreement. The actual Master Policy is available for Owner's inspection at Agent's premises. Policy premium will be charged to Owner's account. Agent will take reasonable measures including fenced lot and security checks to prevent vandalism or theft of any kind while RV is on Agent's premises. However, if such should occur, Owner will be responsible for the deductible amount as set forth in the above insurance policy. Lastly, acts of God are covered by the Owner and the Owner will be liable for any insurance deductible.

Agent will be paying the Owner's rental insurance each month in advance and billing the Owner for the cost of the insurance paid to MBA Insurance, RVShare or Outdoorsy. If there is any balance due Agent at the end of each month, the balance will be carried over to the following month so the Owner will not have to pay any out-of-pocket expenses for insurance payments. Insurance charges will be reimbursed from Owner's commissions.

Owner authorizes Agent at its sole discretion, to select the proper repair facility for any mechanical or other repairs. If it is necessary to have warranty, or other repairs, performed at another dealership or repair facility, agent may at its sole discretion charge a reasonable fee for delivery and pick up of the RV (estimate $50 per hour). It is further understood that Agent is not responsible for any lost income to the Owner as a result of time lost due to damage, repair or failure to timely return by a renter, or for theft of RV. If Agent inadvertently does not charge the owner a repair bill or insurance bill with their monthly statement, Owner acknowledges that those funds will be due and owing to Agent before returning the RV back to the Owner.

Owner agrees to keep current license tags on RV at all times, purchasing them in advance if necessary to correlate with scheduled rentals, or will provide Agent with license renewal forms, and does hereby authorize Agent to purchase tags.
Owner agrees to keep his or her own insurance in force during the term of this agreement, unless coverage is provided through MBA Insurance. Then and only then does the owner have the option to remove their personal policy. Owner agrees to pay the cost of commercial rental insurance while the RV is on rental. Any cost for emission testing, licensing or other reasonable and necessary costs incurred on Owner's behalf shall be reimbursed to Agent. In addition, Agent may assess a charge for its time reasonably incurred for performing any emission testing or licensing of the RV.

Owner agrees to book no rentals privately during the period of this agreement, but to refer all prospects to Agent.

Insurance Deposit
Agent agrees to pay to the insurance company the required deposit to obtain commercial rental insurance on Owner's RV. The insurance company will retain this deposit until the RV is removed from service with Agent. When the deposit is released back to the Agent, the Agent will retain the full amount of the deposit.

Compensation
Agent shall receive 50 % of the gross rental collections from the customer including rental time, generator hours, and mileage charges, after commissions paid to travel agents, finder fess or other referral sources. Owner further agrees that Agent may charge the rental customer with prepaid cleaning, housekeeping kits, delivery fees, or other such incidental items and Agent shall be entitled to 100% of such revenue.

Owner receives 50 % of gross nightly rental rate, generator, and mileage (if applicable, see maintenance and repairs), after commissions paid to travel agents, finder fees or others referral sources and sites, less any maintenance, repair, insurance, or other incidental items charged to the Owner's account. A detailed statement along with any compensation due Owner will be emailed around the 5 day of each month starting with the prior month's activity. In the event that there is a negative balance in Owner's account, Owner does not have to pay Agent for these charges at that time. Agent agrees to wait until the RV rents to a customer to deduct charges owed to them.

In the event that a renter initiates a dispute related to credit card charges or fails to effectuate payment for the rental services rendered, the Agent shall be under no obligation to remit funds to the Owner for the duration of the rental agreement. The Agent expressly reserves the right to pursue collection from the renter through all lawful means available, including but not limited to litigation or engagement of collection agencies. Should the Agent successfully recover any amounts attributable to the renter's account, such funds shall be distributed to the Owner in an equitable manner, proportional to the outstanding debt owed to the Owner. It is understood and agreed that the liability of the Agent to remit payment to the Owner is contingent upon the successful recovery of said funds, and any non-payment or charge dispute initiated by the renter shall absolve the Agent of any financial liability to the Owner in connection with the rental transaction.

Maintenance and Repairs

Agent agrees to take care of each and every RV and use commercially reasonable efforts to keep the RV in good repair and operating condition. (The biggest reason why we do the initial 36-point inspection is to find out what problems the RV has. Unfortunately, they don't always show up in the initial inspection; they may show up during rentals.)

When the RV returns from a rental, Agent will discuss with the Renter any issues that may have come up during the RV rental. It is Agent's sole discretion as how to handle any repairs. If something is necessary for a rental (example a fridge or water pump) and is not in working order we let the customer know ahead of time. At this point the customer is welcome to cancel and get a full refund (which rarely happens), if not we will discount the rental for the customer which comes out of the nightly split between the agent and the owner.

If Agent can repair the RV immediately, Owner hereby authorizes Agent to do so. If Agent cannot repair the RV and it is detrimental to the next rental, Agent will hire an RV Technician as soon as possible to perform repairs and notify the customer of any delays. Owner hereby authorizes Agent to select an appropriate RV Technician, in Agent's sole discretion. If repairs are not detrimental to the rental, in Agent's sole discretion, Owner hereby authorizes Agent to have repairs scheduled to be performed and completed once an opening occurs during regular rental season, as determined by Agent in its sole discretion. If major work needs to be done, as determined by Agent in its sole discretion, such as exterior body work or aesthetics, these repairs will be scheduled at the end of the rental season (usually September or October) so it's done properly and not rushed.

Agent currently offers two different options for maintenance; you choose your plan and we carry this out.

-Basic Plan

Agent will provide for Oil change, air filter, brakes, fuel filter, generator maintenance and basic interior maintenance such as screws, nails trim, etc.

Winterization is covered by the owner.

Majority of the seasonal maintenance will be covered by Agent.

All other maintenance will be paid for by the Owner.

Agent receives 100% of the extra mile charges, towing and generator fees.

-Owner Plan

Owner is responsible for 100% of the maintenance cost including but not limited to, basic interior maintenance, the seasonal maintenance, annual 36 point inspection, seasonal alignment, tire rotation and any other preventative maintenance.

Winterization is covered by the Owner.

Agent agrees to perform routine maintenance in a timely manner.

Agent charges $100 /hour (prices are subject to change at any time) for any maintenance performed plus cost of parts and supplies.

Owner receives 100% of the extra mile charges, towing and generator fees.

-36 Point RV Inspection

Agent agrees to do the initial inspection at no cost to the owner. But should the owner cancel the agreement or changes their mind about renting the RV (within 1 months of the inspection), the Owner agrees to pay for the inspection. Inspections can cost between $150-$400 depending on the RV type, make, and model.

-Minimum amount to Repair
The owner chooses the dollar amount to be informed and consented for the repairs to be made. Anything over $250, the Owner will be notified and repairs will be delayed until Owner approves. Photos and Video ☑ ☐
The Agent shall possess full and irrevocable rights to photograph, film, and publish any promotional material associated with the Owner's RV listing as deemed necessary for marketing and rental purposes. All media, whether in digital or print form, shall remain the exclusive property of the Agent. In the event that such media is utilized outside the scope of the Agent's permission, including but not limited to unauthorized distribution or reproduction, the Owner shall be liable for any damages incurred as a result of such misuse, including but not limited to claims for violation of the right of publicity. The Owner acknowledges and agrees that any such violation may result in appropriate charges as assessed by the Agent.

Owner Usage
The Owner retains the right to utilize their RV at their discretion, provided that a minimum of ___ days' written notice is furnished to the Agent and that the RV is not already reserved for rental purposes. This provision extends to usage by family members and friends. Should the Owner choose to impose a fee for the usage of the RV by friends or family, it is the sole responsibility of the Owner to collect any such payment independently, without any involvement from the Agent.

In instances where the RV is utilized by individuals other than the Owner, the Owner is hereby requested to cover the associated preparation fee required by the Agent for such usage. Should the Owner wish to negotiate this fee, such negotiations must be conducted in writing to ensure mutual agreement.

Upon return of the RV after personal use, the Owner is obligated to return the vehicle in a condition equivalent to that of a rented RV—specifically, cleaned, prepped, and ready for subsequent rental. This obligation encompasses: pressure washing the exterior, thoroughly cleaning the interior, dumping the waste tanks, refilling the freshwater tank, fueling the tank, and replenishing propane levels. Additionally, in the event that the Owner has permitted a pet inside the RV, it is imperative that the Owner steam clean the carpets and upholstery without exception.

Failure to fulfill these obligations will result in the assessment of fees, which shall be determined by the Agent. It is expressly noted that pricing for such fees is subject to change at any time at the discretion of the Agent.

Return Fees:

$200	Steam Clean
$100	Pressure Wash (Depends on type of RV)
$50/hr	Inside Cleaning
$50	Dump tanks
$35+	Propane fill | Fuel fill

Owner Equipment

The Owner acknowledges that the Agent shall not be held responsible for any personal items or equipment left inside the RV by the Owner during the term of this agreement. In the interest of promoting transparency and accountability, the Agent agrees to notate, photograph, and document any items left behind by the Owner at the initial intake of the RV. These items will be set aside in a designated location within the RV for safekeeping.

The Agent will exercise reasonable diligence to track and maintain an inventory of the Owner's belongings during each rental transaction. Upon the expiration of this agreement, the Agent shall return all documented items to the Owner.

Important Note: The Agent strongly advises the Owner to limit items left in the RV to those necessary for its rental, which may include but are not limited to: sewer hose, water hose, electrical cord, water regulator, wheel chocks, hitch components, and similar items. The Agent will specifically track and maintain these essential items as outlined.

Any additional personal property left in the RV that is not expressly identified shall be handled at the Owner's risk, with no liability assumed by the Agent for loss, damage, or deterioration thereof. The Owner agrees to indemnify and hold the Agent harmless from any claims arising from items left in the RV, including but not limited to claims for theft, loss, or damage.

Tolls

The Owner hereby agrees to assume financial responsibility for any tolls incurred while the RV is under the management of the Agent. To facilitate timely reimbursement, the Owner is required to submit all relevant toll documentation to the Agent immediately upon receipt. This process is necessary to enable the Agent to collect the associated fees from the renter. Reimbursement for tolls will be reflected on the Owner's monthly statement as a positive repair payout. It is the Owner's responsibility to ensure that all documentation is accurately and promptly submitted to the Agent to avoid any delays in reimbursement. Failure on the part of the Owner to pay any tolls incurred or to timely notify the Agent of such tolls shall render the Owner liable for any additional fees or late charges that may accrue as a result. The Agent shall retain the right to collect any outstanding amounts related to toll violations, including but not limited to penalties, fees, and administrative costs associated with the tolling authority. The Owner's obligations under this section shall survive the termination of any rental agreement, ensuring that any outstanding toll responsibilities are resolved in a timely

Legal Notice Regarding Repossession and Bankruptcy of Owner
This next section is intended to establish clear terms and conditions regarding the rental and management of the RV in the event of repossession or bankruptcy and shall serve to protect the interests of both parties under applicable law.

Repossession Clause
In the event of repossession of the recreational vehicle (RV), if the Agent successfully pays for and retrieves the RV, the Owner shall forfeit any and all payments due to them from that point forward. All future earnings generated from the rental of the RV shall be held in an escrow account managed by the Agent. The Agent is authorized to make direct payments to the financial institution holding the loan on behalf of the Owner until the end of the rental season. Should the Agent determine that retrieval of the RV is not feasible, it retains the right to suspend any payments owed to the Owner until such time as the RV is successfully retrieved. In the circumstance where the Owner is unable to reclaim the RV or fulfill any fines or penalties, the Agent is entitled to remove the RV from its rental fleet, thereby canceling any future rental agreements for that specific RV without any financial obligations to the Owner. Furthermore, the Owner shall remain liable for any outstanding balances due to the Agent for repairs, maintenance, storage, or cleaning related to the RV.

Bankruptcy Notification Clause
In the event that the Owner files for bankruptcy, it is imperative that the Owner provides immediate written notification to the Agent. If a bankruptcy court or financial institution does not mandate the immediate return of the RV, the Agent shall retain full discretion to continue renting the RV. This provision grants the Agent the right to terminate the rental agreement without incurring any penalties or potential liabilities for litigation. Should the Agent and Owner reach a mutual agreement to cease rental activities regarding the RV, all outstanding financial obligations between the parties must be settled prior to the release of the RV. It is acknowledged that any amounts owed to the Agent may become a matter of concern given the financial circumstances surrounding the Owner's bankruptcy filing. As such, the Agent's right to recover costs associated with the RV remains intact, and no release of liability shall be entertained until all dues are reconciled.

Cancellation
This agreement is good for one full year from the date initiated above.

If Owner choses to cancel, Owner must notify Agent 30 days prior to the expiration of this agreement. Notification must be made in writing to Agent. In the event the Owner does not notify Agent of non-renewal, this contract and agreement will automatically be extended for 0___ months. In the case of termination Owner must pay to the Agent any and all outstanding funds owed to Agent including: insurance, storage, repairs, and maintenance costs ~~and a $300 fee unless by an act of God.~~ If Owner decides to cancel then said sum is payable upon the Owner picking up the RV or else you will receive a debt collection letter. If cancellation is made within 3 months of the contract, the owner will pay for the intake cleaning of the RV. Cost will range between $150-$400 depending on the severity.

Either party may early terminate contract with a 30 day notification in writing. Any future rentals past 30 days must be honored by RV Owner unless Agent can re-book and re-assign reservation into another RV of equal or greater value to the RV Renter.
